DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of group I in the reply filed on 10/27/2008 is acknowledged.
2. Claims 14-20 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected inventions, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 10/27/2008.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by JP 09-017722.
5. JP'722 discloses (see Fig 1) discloses a coating process apparatus for forming a coating film on a substrate comprising a holding mechanism (7); a coating liquid supply mechanism (17); a rotating mechanism (5) and airflow control member laid out close to the substrate and having a vertical cross section which is gradually becomes thicker upward from inside toward an outside (see Fig 10).

6. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Yoshihara et al (US 6,527,860).

7. Yoshihara et al (see Figs 1 and 10) discloses a coating process apparatus for forming a coating film on a substrate comprising a holding mechanism (10); a coating liquid supply mechanism (11, 17); a rotating mechanism (see Fig 1) and airflow control member laid out close to the substrate and having a vertical cross section which is gradually becomes thicker upward from inside toward an outside (see Fig 10).

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 2-13 are allowed.

9. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Yoshihara et al and JP'722 do not disclose an air flow control member having the claimed specific structures. The cross section of the air flow member in each of the reference does not have a rectangular shape. Actually, the air flow member has a triangular shape (see Fig 10 and 1 respectively). Prior art of record does not disclose or suggest a coating apparatus comprising, among others, a processing container accommodating a substrate holding mechanism and exhausting an atmosphere the bottom of the substrate, wherein the processing container including an air flow member having a cross section of an approximately rectangular shape defined by an upper ring portion having a vertical cross section of an approximately triangular shape protruding upward and a lower ring portion having a cross section of an approximately a triangular shape protruding downward.

Art Unit: 1792
